*Direct deposit statements are produced and mailed only:

- ☒ when your first deposit is made;
- ☒ when there is a change in the amount of your deposit from the prior month (for instance, if you change the amount of your federal tax withholding or your insurance premium changes);
- ☒ when the MTRS needs to inform retirees of new information and prints a special notice on the top portion of the direct deposit statement; and,
- ☒ at the end of December, when the MTRS provides you with a statement that shows your complete year-to-date information for the calendar year.

Checks are issued on the Check Mailing date and payable on the Direct Deposit date. If you receive your check before the date it is payable, please do not cash it until the payable date.

Please keep us informed of your address! So that we may send you important information—such as your 1099-R, direct deposit statements and Benefit Verification forms—we need your current address for our records. If your address changes permanently or temporarily, please complete a Change of Address Form-Retired member available on our website, and mail it to our main office.
